Approved For Release 200004/DENTAMEP82-00457800730062 INFORMATION REPORT CD NO. CO CERRY Ceneruel -DATE DISTR 25 APP 51 SUBJECT Expulsion of Boris Golovatiuk NO. OF PAGES 1 25X1A PLACE NO. OF ENCLS. √CQUIRED DATE OF LINK! SUPPLEMENT TO MFO. January - February 1951 25X1X REPORT NO. Boris Colovatiuk, Czechoslovakian citizen*, age 26, was expelled from Venezuela en 16 February 1951. He left for Costa Rica via Curacae on 25X1X Kill airlines. Prior to his departure, he was accompanied by an agent of the Seguridad Nacional (SN) on his visits to various consulates to seek a visa. He was reportedly offered visas by Guatemala and Costa Rica. 25X1X Golovatiuk arrived in 25X1X venezuela in 1948 and has been arrested on two occasions by the Venezuelan police. The second arrest took place in January 1951, at which time the police found in his possession a parcel of valuables from the Soviet Embassy as well as various "incriminating" papers. on two occasions the Soviet Embassy has given Colovatiuk jewelry which stated that 25X1X he was to sell for that Embassy. 25X1X Golovatiuk was in charge of the Soviet library at the bookstore of his father, Nikolai Golovatiuk, who reportedly stated that his son had been arrested as the result of false denunciations made by his Czech fiancee. Since his son's arrest, the store of Nikolai Colovatiuk has been searched twice by SN agents. Nikolai has reportedly refused to accept parcels from the Soviet Union, but one day during his absence from the store the postmen left a package containing Soviet publications. 25X1A*Cf. in which it was stated that Boris Golovatiuk has represented himself as a Ukrainian and as a Russian. it was erroneously 25X1A reported that Boris, rather than Mikolai, Golovatiuk was the proprietor of the bookstore Casa Golovatiuk, Llagumo a Cuartel Viejo 43, Caracas. Document Ca. No Chare Doil Class. 🚼 0 1 Aug 1978 CLASSIFICATION STATE X NAVY NSRB ARMY FEI

SHOWER

25X1A

LASSIFICATION